

MH 12/5969. Liverpool Poor Law Union, 1852. Accusations of negligence against John Callan, Liverpool District Medical Officer. 1852.

MH 12/5969. Liverpool Poor Law Union, 1852. Series of pages regarding accusations of negligence against John Callan, Liverpool District Medical Officer. Callan is accused and found guilty on several counts of negligence and of trying to intimidate witnesses who spoke against him. 1852.

MH 12/5969. Liverpool Poor Law Union, 1852. John Callan; continued.

read and the evidence appearing to establish conclusively that Mr Callan had grossly neglected
the case and grossly tampered with the witness
it was

Resolved. That Mr Callan be at once suspended from his Office and that a Copy of the evidence in the present case with a representation of other cases of complaint against him be forwarded to Poor Law Board for them to deal with.

In accordance with this resolution I herewith Copy of the evidence referred to

I have the honor to be
My Lords and Gentlemen
Your obedient Servant

Charter.

MH 12/5969. Liverpool Poor Law Union, 1852. John Callan; continued.