

Catalogue Day 2009

Friday November 20

Programme

10.00 Welcome (Natalie Ceeney)

10.10 – 10.45 Louise Craven/Jone Garmendia - The National Archives Catalogue: Cataloguing Update

10.45 Ed Hampshire – Opening up the Foreign Office: projects to improve access to Foreign Office correspondence

11.05 Break with coffee and tea provided

11.20 Pete Seaman – Hearth Tax exemption certificates

11.40 Roger Kershaw – Roll Up Roll Up – unlocking First World War Army Service Medal and Award Rolls

12.00 Oliver Morley – Our Future Catalogue

12.20 Lunch

13.45 Emma Jay – Pathways to the records: developing The National Archives' website

14.05 Sean Cunningham – New Sources for Old History: mining unsorted medieval and early modern records at the National Archives

14.30 Break with tea and coffee provided

14.50 Janet Dempsey - Convoys and Card indexes – improving access to ADM 199

15.10 Rose Mitchell – Corbels and pediments: architectural drawings project

15.30 Paul Carter and Natalie Whistance – How Cruel was the Victorian Workhouse? Voices of the Paupers: Evidence from the Records

15.50 Round up and close