

Vocabulary list for SEN schools

The National Archives – a building where special things/documents made by the British government are kept forever.

British government – a group of politicians who decide what happens in Britain. It is led by the Prime Minister.

Archive – a collection of documents relating to topics or people.

Document – a piece of information for example, letters, photographs, drawings and reports.

Archive box – a special strong box where documents are kept in repositories.

Repository – a room where archive boxes are stored. Repositories are kept cool and dark.

Special – something which is very important or rare.