

Appendix - Exercise of delegated powers 2013-14

The Lord Chancellor has delegated the following powers, conferred on him by the Public Records Act 1958, to the Chief Executive of The National Archives and his staff.

1. The giving of approval for the transfer of public records, in either direction, between The National Archives and places of deposit, as well as transfers between places of deposit is made under s. 4(3) of the Public Records Act 1958.

Reference	Class of public record	Transferred from	Transferred to
2014-01	Avon Papers FO 954	The National Archives	Cadbury Research Library, University of Birmingham
2014-02	Foreign and Commonwealth Office Private Papers of First Earl of Avon FO 800/750-851	The National Archives	Cadbury Research Library, University of Birmingham
2014-03	Royal Free Hospital NHS Foundation Trust (H71) Records relating to the Royal Free Hospital and related hospitals within the Trust	Royal Free Archive Centre	London Metropolitan Archives: City of London

2. The appointment of places of deposit under s. 4(1).

Public records with either specific local relevance or particular specialist and administrative requirements are held outside The National Archives in approved places of deposit. During the year the following places of deposit were appointed:

Worcestershire Archive and Archaeology Service (The Hive)
Natural History Museum (Archive Store NEB 01)

3. The giving of approval for the presentation of public records which have not been selected for permanent preservation at The National Archives to other appropriate bodies under s. 3(6).

During the year the power to approve presentations of un-selected public records was exercised as detailed below. In a number of cases the intended presentations were set aside as no longer required and consequently the instruments were not used.
