

Your invitation to see behind the scenes at The National Archives...

Come on a guided tour of our Repositories and Collection Care departments...

...explore the vast repositories, see how documents are stored and retrieved...

...experience cutting edge preservation work taking place in the Collection Care department to preserve our collections

To see first-hand projects where Friends money has really made a difference, please book a place on one of the two dates the tours will run

Tours will last approximately two hours and run twice a year: the first Tuesday in May or the last Thursday in September at 11am

To book a place please contact Juliette Johnstone at Juliette.Johnstone@nationalarchives.gov.uk or call 0208 8763444 ext. 2046

Groups can be a maximum of 12, and places will be offered on a first come first served basis.
