OWNERSHIP AND CUSTODY OF CARD.

This Card is the property of the Insurance Commissioners (England); during its currency it is entrusted to the Contributor, who must return it together with his Insurance Book to his Society or, if he is not a Member of a Society, hand the Card in at any Post Office immediately upon its expiry but in no case later than 26th OCTOBER, 1912.

As the stamped Card is the only evidence of payment of Contributions, no allowance will be made for any Stamps on this Card unless and until the Card has been returned as provided above.

The Card must be produced to the Employer at any time on demand, and must be delivered to him whenever he requires it for the purpose of paying contributions. It will be returned after stamping, but where the Contributor is in continuous employment the Card may be left in the hands of the Employer, who will be responsible for its safe custody. It must be returned to the Contributor upon its expiry, or at any time within 48 hours of its demand by the Contributor.

If the Card is not retained by the Employer, it must be delivered to him when he requires it for the purpose of production to an Inspector or other authorised person.

On the Contributor leaving his Employment the Card must be returned to him by the Employer, and may, if the Contributor so desires, be exchanged for a new one at the office of the Society or, if he is not a Member of a Society, at any Post Office.

If a Card is accidentally damaged or defaced it should be exchanged for a new one.

Any person having this Card in his possession must produce it at any reasonable time when required by an Inspector or other authorised person.

In the event of the death of the Contributor, this Card must be returned to his Society or to the Insurance Commissioners, London, S.W.

LOST CARD.

Any person finding this Card, unless he can at once return it to the Contributor, should drop it into a Post Office Letter Box.
