

Why did people want the king back in 1646?

Case study 1: Effects of war, 1642-45

To understand why people wanted Charles back on the throne in 1646, we need to look at what they had been through in the years beforehand. These sources will help you understand what happened and how people felt.

Letter by a Parliament army officer, 1642

An order by Parliament about the city of Lincoln

Report on Cheshire's attempt to be neutral, 1643

Petition of Mary Baker to help her husband, 1643

Warrant to seize all horses in London, 1643

Map showing the defences of London in 1643

Order about paying for Parliament's army, 1644