

Home > Gallery > Case Study

Search this exhibition

Print

CASE STUDY 5: LIVING IN THE BRITISH EMPIRE - NORTH AMERICA

If you have looked at the first case study in this gallery, you will have seen sources that give a British view of life in the British empire. In this case study you will examine a range of sources that look at life in North America under British rule. Study each of the sources carefully and look for ways in which they support or contradict the views given in the first case study.

Background | Online Exhibition

Create your own Online Exhibition about 'Living in the British empire', using the sources and worksheet provided. The Background will help with an introduction to North America as part of the British empire.

Sources

1. Report on British and Native Americans, 1836

2. Extract from the Durham Report, 1839

3. Map showing the US-Canadian border, 1842

4. The Anderson case, a runaway slave, 1867

5. Report of an Irish Republican meeting, 1865

6. Document showing lands added to Canada, 1870

7. British meeting with Native Americans, 1875

8. Cartoon on new railways in Canada, 1887

Feedback | Credits | Sitemap | Help

Glossary | World Maps