Getting the most out of The Gazette

DO...

- Use the “All notices” section to begin your search journey.
- Ensure you spell names correctly and try variations e.g. John Arthur Smith, J. A. Smith, J. Smith.
- Select the correct date range – the narrower the date range, the more targeted the results.
- Tick the notice type selections when searching for notices from 1998 onwards only. For pre 1998 notices and supplements use the text search box.
- Share your findings on social media.
- Let us know what you think!

Getting the most out of The Gazette

DON'T...

- Forget to clear your text box and categories if you want to conduct another search.
- Use commas or symbols, for example & or *. Quote marks (“”) are fine, but only for exact match searches.
- Rely on Wikipedia to provide you with information prior to searching, it can often be wrong.
- Forget you can search PDFs using CTRL+F (if you use a Chrome browser) or by clicking “find” at the top of your webpage (if you use Internet Explorer or Firefox).
- Give up!

To recap....

Start from the 'all notices' section

Use each section for bespoke searches and features

Use filters to refine the search

Click the "clear all" button to start a new search

Remember to 'UPDATE' your results

Use the notice type selections carefully!
