Notes

Although the amount of material is slight the records give a clear picture of the school, its determination to offer a broad education in spite of financial problems and its quality as a society. In the well maintained scrap books (C 2 to C8) and in the term honour lists (D 8 to D 10) that determination is evident, whilst the reports (F 2 to F 6) reflect the problems that have been faced by Heads and Councils.

All the items listed are at the school, carefully stowed in cupboards because lack of space makes the concentration of records in one room impossible.
