WESTMINSTER DIOCESAN ARCHIVES

~~Archbishop's House~~
Ambrosden Avenue
Westminster, London SW1P 1QJ

16A Abingdon Road
London W8

The surviving official records, manuscript collections and personal papers of bishops and archbishops to 1865 at Archbishop's House have been listed as follows:-

1. Draft Catalogue of the archives by Father Bernard Fisher, archivist 1940-65. Catalogues the collection as then known in eight sections:- Main series (A), supplementary series (B) and classes C-H.
2. Additional MSS class Z. Manuscripts missing at the time of Father Fisher's catalogue, with additional individual items retrieved from elsewhere in Archbishop's House. Listed by Miss Elizabeth Poyser, archivist from 1965.
3. Bishops Douglass, Poynter and Bramston: schemes of papers. Papers 1790-1836 formerly catalogued as A50-75 above, rearranged, reboxed with some additional material. Summary schemes prepared by Miss Poyser in the 1970s.
4. Wiseman papers series 1-3. Papers 1812-65 additional to those in the three categories above. Known as the Wiseman papers, these include some of Bishop Bramston's and many of Bishop Griffith's in addition to c18 boxes of Cardinal Wiseman's. Summarised 1986 from preliminary lists compiled by Miss Poyser c1975.

A general description and history of the archives is found in Philip Hughes, 'The Westminster Archives', Dublin Review, 1937, pp300-10. (See off-print in NRA Guide series, annotated with reference numbers and additional accessions to 1978).

Some deposited collections are listed in NRA 12787, 16303, 27775.

Conditions of access

Access to collections at Archbishop's House is by appointment only. All papers less than thirty years old are closed to research. Others are available at the discretion of the archivist.

4. SUMMARY OF PRELIMINARY LISTS OF WISEMAN PAPERS, SERIES 1-3

The Wiseman papers now comprise 16 archive boxes, as follows:-
 Series 1 (1 box), series 2 (4 boxes), series 3 (9 boxes), extracted correspondence with bishops in England and abroad (2 boxes).

Asterisks in these lists indicate papers of JV Bramston
 (vicar apostolic 1827-36) and of Bishop Thomas Griffiths (vicar apostolic 1836-47) removed and now boxed with their papers, though retaining the references given here. Wiseman's correspondence with other bishops has been similarly extracted and is listed following this report. Expanded lists of most sections of these papers may be consulted in the Westminster Diocesan Archives.
