Petition of Joan Scarle to Thomas [Billson] Bp. of Winchester for the enjoyment of certain lands adjoining her mansion house of Fairthorne, for which she alleges her father joined by Copy for the term of 3 lives, of which she is the third, at the time when the bishop was Warden of the College, but which had been subsequently granted by Warden Harman to another tenant.

At the foot is a minute stating that the lands were not granted as suggested in the title of the bishop, but had formerly been let by lease to Richard Searle and to Wyatt the father of the Wyatt who now occupies them. It ends "besides her willfull contempt of Religion established may have no further favour than comon justice."
