Kirby's Letters from Ridding H/GR/34-51.

H/GR/34 Letter from George Ridding to T.F. Kirby, bursar, admonishing him for allowing the City council to close College Street without first notifying the College.
(March 1873) before following letter.

H/GR/35 Letter from George Ridding to T.F. Kirby inferring that Kirby had misunderstood his previous letter (above), and ridiculing Kirby's suggestion that the Town Council should be summoned.
13th March 1873.

H/GR/36 Letter from George Ridding to T.F. Kirby mentioning a cheque enclosed for the balance of the Walford window fund.
31st July 1873.

- H/GR/37 Letter from George Ridding to T.F. Kirby informing him of the salaries of the new gymnasium instructor and his assistant. He has doubts on putting a fence to mark off Sick House grounds and the locking of gates near the Botanical garden.
31st July 1878.
- H/GR/38 Letter from George Ridding to T.F. Kirby regarding financial matters including the cost of building the gymnasium, in which, he says, gas must be put.
1st Aug. 1878.
- H/GR/39 Letter from George Ridding to T.F. Kirby chiefly about equipment for the gymnasium, especially clothes for the boys doing fencing. He is emphatic on the need for a clock 'at once'.
1st Aug. 1878.
- H/GR/40 Letter from George Ridding to T.F. Kirby concerning changes in the arrangements for the upkeep of the Botanical Garden. He refers to a letter from the Town Clerk about Ventilators (possibly for drains and to a broken drain from the Barracks. He is worried about the choristers mixing with the Cathedral choristers who live in the town.
26th Oct. 1878.
- H/GR/41 Letter from George Ridding to T.F. Kirby expressing anxiety about the purity of the College water supply, which was, at that time, being altered. He had received a letter from the Rev. Charles Crawford complaining that his son, R.H.P. Crawford, had arrived home with blood poisoning. Ridding mentions typhoid fever which had previously occurred in the school.
19th August. 1880.
- H/GR/42 Letter from George Ridding to T.F. Kirby which includes a list of small matters he wants brought before a Fellows' committee meeting. E.G. cleaning classroom windows, planting more trees in New Field (Lords), and replacement of missing pieces of Chapel window glass.
4 Oct. 1880.
- H/GR/43 Letter from George Ridding to T.F. Kirby thanking him for plans and explaining that Thos. Stopher, surveyor, had connected a drain, against the advice of the City council, of which he had not been told. There is an epidemic of Scarlatina in the school which Ridding thinks might be caused by faulty drains.
22nd Nov. 1880.
- H/GR/44 Letter from George Ridding to T.F. Kirby in which he writes much of the 'drainage dilemma'. He had himself inspected w.c's and sleeping chambers and was dissatisfied with the 'slovenliness' found there. He also asks Kirby for information on the course of the Lockburn.
25th Nov. 1880.

- H/GR/45 Letter from George Ridding to T.F. Kirby in which he questions the right of Harry Lee and two housemasters, E.W. Sergeant and J.T. Bramston, to make an agreement on road making without consulting him. He refers to the conversion of Wolvesey Castle into a hospital for the College, and returns to the subject of drains. He suggests that it is too much for Kirby to look after the internal domestic workings of the College in addition to care of all the property, and thinks this matter should be brought before the Governing Body.
4th Dec. 1880.
- H/GR/46 Letter from George Ridding to T.F. Kirby beginning with a short reference to the Culver Close Road, but continuing at some length on the question of Kirby's duties as Bursar, which had not been clearly defined when the office was created. It appears that the Second Master could choose his own servants but it was the duty of the Bursar to see that they did their work properly. Ridding thinks that a decision should now be made on the Bursar's exact duties.
9th Dec. 1880.
- H/GR/47 Letter from George Ridding to T.F. Kirby telling him of the necessity, during the Christmas holidays, of cleaning the infirmary from 'top to toe' - brimstoning all the rooms and baking beds.
23rd Dec. 1880.
- H/GR/48 Letter from George Ridding to T.F. Kirby expressing anxiety as he had heard that not all the infirmary was to be cleaned. He emphasized the necessity, as it had been for three months full of Scarlatina.
30th Dec. 1880.
- H/GR/49 Letter from George Ridding to T.F. Kirby still on the subject of the cleaning of the infirmary. He also says it is time to appoint a servant for the Choristers' School.
5th Jan. 1881.
- H/GR/50 Letter from George Ridding to T.F. Kirby beginning with an assurance that the Governing Body would pay for the Scholars' nursing. He asks Kirby to prepare an exact statement of the arrangements for the internal running of the College, including problems regarding the servants, so that this can be put before the Governing Body and changes made if necessary.
27th Jan. 1881.
- H/GR/51 Letter from George Ridding to T.F. Kirby about two missing mattresses which Ridding says he will replace as he should, himself, have seen to their removal from Wolvesey to the College.
3rd Feb. 1881.

his work in Lavender Mead.
1st Oct. 1870.

Letters of Rev. Harry Lee H/GR/82-86

H/GR/82 Letter from Harry Lee to George Ridding who was pressing him to sell land, and a house known as 'Gales' for the use of the College.
H. Lee was distressed and confused, as doubts to his title to the land had been brought up by Ridding's solicitors, C. Wooldridge & Sons. He had already sold land in Culver Close to the College and clearly had no wish to part with more. He had hoped to have the use of the land to the end of his life. He was, at this time, 76.
28th July (18)69.

H/GR/83a Letter from Harry Lee to George Ridding concerning the sale of Dogger's Close with a long confused account of his right to the land and his unjust treatment by the College. Lady Laura Ridding, in her book 'George Ridding', Edward Arnold, London (1908) p.53, mixes up several phrases from this letter with some of her own, as if they were a direct quotation, in order to illustrate her belief in the selfishness of the Fellows towards the boys.
5th Aug. (1869)

H/GR/83b Envelope addressed to Rev. Dr. Ridding, College Street, Winchester, Postmark Devizes.
5th Aug. (18)69.

H/GR/64 Letter from Harry Lee to George Ridding protesting at the pressure being put on him to sell his property - his 'little compact holdings around my Paternal dwelling' - for Riddings 'grand designs for the benefit of the school'. He feels he has been badly used but in spite of this assures Ridding, over and over again, that he has not calculated the value to the College in the price he asks, wishing only to recover the amount he paid originally.
17th Aug. (18)69.

H/GR/85 A long postscript, written by Harry Lee to George Ridding, apologis-ing for having been so diffuse in a note in answer to a letter from Ridding. No price has, so far, been agreed for his property so he has asked a Mr. Comely to value it as he now wishes 'to sell everything connected with it to prevent any annoyance to me, any dispute between you, the College or myself, and so be free from the whole concern.'
no date.

H/GR/86 A leaflet on educational matters on the back of which is written in Lady Laura Ridding's hand 'Queer correspondence with Rev. Harry Lee about purchase of Doggers Close and house adjoining,' and also 'bits used in describing fellows views of College !!!!' (This is the quotation referred to in 83a).
