

Enfield Local History Unit

This catalogue was digitised by The National Archives as part of the National Register of Archives digitisation project

NRA 25942

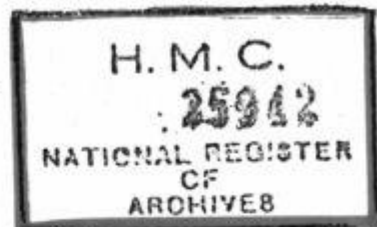

The National Archives

42 JUL 1987

D1624 Gough Manuscripts

Enfield Local History Library

Miscellaneous papers of Richard Gough.

1. Lines addressed to Thomas Forster.
2. Epitaph on Richard Gough written by himself.
3. 'A cat's prayer and last wish' by T. Forster ?
4. Unfinished verse on Woodstock.
5. 'Now hang the war beat armour high'
6. 'The Winter's walk' by S. Johnson.
7. Letter to Richard Gough from the Revd. T. Lisle Bowles.
8. Letter, Richard Gough to Mr Baldwin concerns the New River.
9. Verse written in an inn at Stilton 1768 in French.
10. Verse written in 1772 'The preaching coachman' 106 lines.
11. Family history of Edward Rowe Mores.
12. 'On Enfield Chase and inclosure' verse.
13. 'Sweet Sir for your curtesy' verse.
14. 'The Enfield Bull' verse on the enclosure of Enfield Chase.
15. On the intended inclosure of Enfield Chase 1779 verse.
16. Extract from Shaw's Staffordshire.
17. Richard Gough his thoughts on contemplating marriage 1 November 1773.
18. Verse on the New River November 1776.
19. Verse 'Mother Crummety'
20. 1774 verse on his proposed marriage.
21. 1774 'Others may sing the wondrous May' verse ie 'On Mr Goffs house of office at Enfield' (3 versions of which one is in French)
22. 1770 'O how great the glory of the antiquaries toil' verse.
23. Verse by Isaac D'Israeli 'Maternal Britain whose wide-spreading name'
24. 'To Mr D'Israeli who intended to submit his manuscript poems to my correction' By John Sherwen M.D. of Enfield verse.

Miscellaneous papers of Richard Gough (contd.)

25. Letter to Mr John Sherwen from Isaac D'Israeli [23 January 1788]
26. Verse by John Sherwen on Enfield Palace and the cedar [January 1788]
27. Another verse probably by John Sherwen on the Enfield cedar.
28. Poly-hymnia or the Castle of Antiquaries by Dr Sherwen. Verse on Gough Park.
29. Verse by John Sherwen on an Enfield vestry meeting 9 June 1781
30. 'The New Pond : a new song' probably by Richard Gough.
31. Cutting from St James Chronicle 20 September 1787. Verse 'addressed to R. Gough on his various recondite labours'
32. Cutting from St James Chronicle. Richard Gough's answer 3 June 1788. Also manuscript copy
33. Letter to Richard Gough. Appears to be an election address 7 May 1779.
34. 'No inclosure' Verse dated 30 December 1784.
35. Letter from Richard Gough to J.C. Walker sending him copy of part of his new edition of Camdens Britannia for revision. From Enfield 4 June 1789.
36. Letter from Richard Gough to J.C. Walker at Dublin from Enfield 31 July 1788.
37. Poem 'Endfields ghost' [John Sherwen] cutting from St James Chronicle 19 January 1785.
38. Reply to Clio's verses [Isaac D'Israeli] cutting from St James Chronicle January 1786.
39. Richard Gough. Account of a tour in Wales.
40. Notes on events in parliament.
41. Will of the late Richard Gough abstracted by J.B. Nichols November 1833.
42. Part of a letter (JB) Nichols from Richard Gough Enfield 1808.
43. Printed verse 'On the insurrection in Genoa' written by R. Gough at the age of nine.
44. Portrait (Isaac D'Israeli?) by Richard Gough.
45. Verse (unsigned) 'Go traveller who'er shall tread'
46. Verse by Richard Gough 'On the sun shining on New Years day 1751'
47. Verse, Richard Gough 'An easy friend, a virtuous wife' 1752.
48. Letter to Richard Gough from S. Ledwich 1757.

Miscellaneous papers of Richard Gough (contd.)

49. Letter, Richard Gough to J.C.Walker 24 March 1790.

50. Ten sheets of illustrations of Roman monuments in Richard Gough's library at Enfield.

51. An account of the Middlesex elections 1768 and 1769.