- F207 Notification of election of Boyd Dawkins as an 1876 honorary member of the New York Academy of Sciences, with covering letter and list of other honorary members.
- F208 R. Tiddeman, Lancaster to Boyd Dawkins - I am horri- 1877 fied to find I should have misrepresented Davis's opinion as to the 'fibula' 30 May
- F209 R. Tiddeman, Kidderminster to Boyd Dawkins - I did not (1877) mention reindeer in my paper as it is a very modern and a very ancient species and no test for age.
- F210 Edward Freeman to 'Mr.. Dear Dickinson' - surely 1879 Stubb's appointment can be explained on the strictest Judaic principals - the Arch -jew thought he was adding to his own sect - another theory says that the Jew (Disreali) is trying to win back those whom he alienated by the Public Worship Act 9 February
- F211 R.S. Poole, British Museum, to Boyd Dawkins 9 January 1880
- F212 W. Gee, editor, Manchester Magazine, to Boyd Dawkins - 1880

- F215 Edward Freeman, Wells, to Boyd Dawkins 7 June 1891
- F216 Sir Henry Howarth, London, to Boyd Dawkins - it is 1892
a long time since we started out two lives together as boys - there only remain Pooley and Tatham who made the same journey. 5 January
- F217 W.N. Geitre, Geological survey, to Boyd Dawkins - in 1898 the Summary of Progress for 1897, I have given an account of the history of the survey and museum -
I enclose a rough proof of the first two sheets
