Catalogue of Ullathorne Archives at St.Dominic's Convent, Stone.

Notes:

1. The Ullathorne material is treated as a special collection, within the Generalate archives at Stone; hence the catalogue symbol:- G/ULL/I/1, etc.
2. All the documents listed here are deposited at Stone, unless otherwise stated.
3. All the documents listed here are original autographs, unless otherwise stated.
4. Attempt has been made, as far as possible, to number the material in coherent groups, or logical sequence. Ullathorne material collected in its own right has been numbered first. Ullathorne documents which are already incorporated into other collections have also been given numbers in this catalogue, but the order and sequence have been partly controlled by the catalogue of the earlier collections. This also accounts for occasional blanks in the numbering sequence.

Categories employed in this catalogue:

- G/ULL/I --- Books, pamphlets and other works composed by Ullathorne, published or unpublished.
- /II --- Sermons, conferences, retreats and notes on spiritual subjects.
- /III --- Letters written by Ullathorne.
- /IV --- Letters to Ullathorne.
- /V --- Ecclesiastical and diocesan documents.
- /VI --- Official documents concerning the Stone Congregation. ✓
- /VII --- Ullathorne family papers.

S.M.Cecily Boulding, o.p.

BRIEF SUMMARY of the catalogue of documents relating to Mother Margaret Mary Hallahan.

Every known surviving document relating the M.Margaret Hallahan, preserved anywhere, was exhaustively catalogued at the time her cause for beatification was introduced. That procedure dictated the pattern and method of cataloguing, and a copy of the catalogue is available at Stone.

The present list summarises the contents of the full catalogue in a brief descriptive fashion.

S.M.Cecily Boulding,o.p.
January 1985.

The material preserved at Stone is contained in 13 boxes.

as, throughout her life, He had, in the words of the preacher, "marvellously held her by her right hand, and conducted her by His will," so may we hope and pray that long ere this, He "has received her into His glory, and become Himself her "exceeding great Reward."

Nevertheless, according to her own most earnest desire, we would beg the readers of THE ROSARY, and all those who knew her, either personally, or by her writings, not to forget her in their prayers, but to offer alms and sacrifices for her soul; that if she
